ANSWERED ON:10.12.2002
NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN
VILAS BABURAO MUTTEMWAR

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the National Commission for Women (NCW) have objected to the interference of the Government in its day to day working making the Commission dependent on the Department of Women and Child Development (DWCD) for implementation of its various schemes;

(b) if so, whether the continuous interference by the DWCD does not amount to dilution of the Commission`s autonomy and independence; and

(c) if so, the manner in which the Government propose to ensure that the powers of the Commission are not diluted in any manner and it is allowed to function without any interference by the DWCD?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (PROF. RITA VERMA)

(a): No, Sir. The National Commission for Women (NCW) has no complaint against the Department of Women and Child Development. The Department always consults the NCW in matters relating to NCW as well as policy relating to women.

(b) & (c) : Does not arise.
